'FROM ME TO YOU'

The Puget Sound Alumnus is entering upon its second year of service to the Alumni of the College and the first under the present editorship. We want it to be a vital force in the development of the College and the Alumni Association. We desire to make you partners in this undertaking by asking for your support in gathering material for publication within its covers and for your comments and suggestions.

November 1 and 2 is Homecoming. Your presence will make it a Homecoming that will go down in Puget Sound's history as the most successful ever celebrated.

It could be said with a great deal of truth that a college is only as strong as its alumni choose to make it. To the extent that we as alums return to our Alma Mater will the citizens of this community recognize the value of the College of Puget Sound as an investment for their time, money and energy; and to that extent will the 650 students of our Alma Mater be proud of their choice of a college.

The home fires will be burning and a program of fun and entertainment with the opportunity of renewing old acquaintanceships will await you. JOIN THE HOMECOMING CROWD.

Plan to Continue Alumni Loyalty Share Fund

By Franklin Johnson

The Alumni Loyalty Share Fund movement was announced and officially launched just one year ago at the College of Puget Sound Homecoming alumni banquet. The finance committee, empowered by the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association, took the leadership in the work of calling on each member of the alumni group and asking each to lend a hand in the work and to do his share.

When the work was completed for the year, 364 alumni had subscribed to the share fund for total pledges of $10,000, a good record for the first year of a new movement on the part of the alumni.

However, correct addresses were found for only 50% of all alumni and former students, which fact presents a challenge to us for this year. Work is going on continuously to discover correct addresses for all members of the alumni group, so that the officers of the association may serve better its complete membership and also that the membership may be brought into closer touch with old Puget Sound.

Plans are now being made by the finance committee for this year's work. A comprehensive program is being laid out with one aim for the year, namely to interview every alumnus possible in the interest of the Alumni Loyalty Share Fund.

Rev. John S. Bell will again cover the field outside the City of Tacoma and will be glad to accept your pledge to the Loyalty Share Fund for the work of the alumni association.

Welcome Home!

By Charles Anderson, President

Greetings fellow members of the College of Puget Sound Alumni Association. Our big fall event, Homecoming, occurs on November 1 and 2. The committee in charge, headed by Elsie Korpela Strobel, is planning for the biggest and the best Homecoming that the College has ever witnessed.

It will be a success and worthwhile only if you as members make it a success by attending and participating in the entire program.

As workers for you, we, the members of the board and of the committee, are willing to plan and put in a great deal of time to make you feel at home and welcome at your Homecoming. But our efforts for you and our plans will be worth while only if you support them by coming back to your Alma Mater for this event.

'Our Loss'

Destruction of the Tacoma Hotel by fire has a peculiar significance to the College of Puget Sound in that it was here that Bishop Charles Henry Fowler got the inspiration to build a Methodist college in Tacoma.

Coming to this country a few days in advance of the Puget Sound Conference in Seattle, he stopped off in Tacoma. The view of Mt. Tacoma gained from the rear veranda of the historic Tacoma Hotel and possibilities of this city for a Methodist institution of higher learning struck deep into his heart. He went to the conference filled with the idea and according to Dr. David Le Sourd, who was at that time starting a Methodist preparatory school in Olympia, could talk of nothing else. Through the efforts of Bishop Fowler at the conference, Puget Sound University, which was the forerunner of the present institution, was organized.

CONCERT TICKETS

Alumni desiring tickets to the Tacoma Philharmonic Orchestra's concerts during the coming season may secure them by writing or calling the office of the Alumni Secretary. Tickets are $3 annually.

'Quantity and Quality'

Your Alma Mater Makes Rapid Strides Forward

By
President Edward H. Todd

"What is the enrollment?" is the first question asked at the beginning of each new year. People observe quantity easier than quality. Material quantities are apparent to all. The first semester enrollments for each of the past five years, beginning with this year are: 651, 618, 612, 629, and 612 for '31-'32.

Is this decided increase accounted for by returning prosperity, student federal aid, financial management, or the quality of the College? We believe that the demonstration of a high quality of work plays the largest part. The quality of work depends largely upon the faculty members. The members of the faculty—and all did not report—served as speakers at over 500 gatherings last year. This testifies to the standing of these members.

Our graduates are demonstrating a high quality of scholarship. Two received Ph. D. degrees from the University of Washington last spring, and are employed in good positions. Two others of that class of thirteen who received this same degree, had been connected with the College of Puget Sound. Another of our alumnae received her Ph. D. degree from the University of Minnesota last June, and is employed in a responsible position in that institution. A number of our graduates have received scholarships and fellowships which have enabled them to pursue their graduate courses.

It is gratifying to get the many expressions from widely distributed sources, of the high regard in which the College is held. This accounts in a large part for the increased attendance and the quality of the student body.

Success may be defined as the filling of one's place to the full. A person or an institution which does this will be called upon to fill a larger place. This will come about through selection to take another place already prepared, or because of the compelled expansion of the place occupied. The College is in the latter condition.

More is being expected of your Alma Mater than ever before. It is a question sometimes whether or not she will be able to meet the demands. Endowment that was earning more than 6% on book value five years ago, is now earning 4.4%. Gifts for the support of the school, which formerly amounted to about $3500 annually, have now become so small that they practically amount to nothing.

That was a great plan which the Alumni started last year. It can easily result in saving the situation. Every alumnus and every former student could save at least $5 per year to give to the College. The addresses of over 2,000 such persons are known. They would provide $10,000 per annum if they would back the Alumni Finance Committee in its Loyalty Share Fund program. Several thousand more have received life benefit from attendance at the institution. This is the most promising field now and for the future. Let us all get together and make CPS more able to meet the demands which are being laid upon her by society because of her success.

Changes on Board of Trustees

Alumni Luncheon

All College of Puget Sound alums in the teaching profession who will be present at the meeting of the Washington Education Association to be held in Tacoma, October 28 and 29 are invited to a luncheon at 12 o'clock Tuesday, October 29.

The luncheon will be held in the Walker Apartment dining room, Sixth and St. Helens Avenues. An instructive and interesting program is being planned by Amy M. Dahlgren, secretary of the alumni association. All those who plan to attend are asked to make reservations with the Alumni Secretary or Miss Dahlgren. A nominal charge will be made for the lunch.

Faculty Additions

Few changes have been made in either the College of Puget Sound faculty or in courses offered in the curriculum. In the main, the prevailing policies and programs of former years will be continued this year. President Edward H. Todd has announced a few additions to the teaching personnel.

Prof. Kenneth M. Hindley, new head of the journalism department, comes to Puget Sound from Northwestern University at Evanston, Illinois, where he received his A.B. degree in the College of Liberal Arts and his A.M. degree in 1935 from the school of education. Professor Hindley is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, national honorary educational fraternity.

Miss Georgia Johnson, who received her B.S. degree at Puget Sound in 1932, comes as an assistant instructor in the home economics department, and Miss Frances Bjorkman, '32, as an assistant in the biology department. Miss Jeanette Amidon, who was graduated last spring, is serving as assistant instructor in the department of business administration. Foster Allen, who received his B.S. degree in 1935, was appointed last week to the position of assistant in chemistry.

The resignation of Alfred Lister from his position as treasurer of the Board of Trustees for the College of Puget Sound was announced at the meeting of the trustees held last week. Mr. Lister has served the College and the Board of Trustees in this capacity for the past 32 years. He will remain on the board as a member of the finance and investment committee. Mr. Lister was replaced by Dix H. Rowland, who has been secretary of the board for the past 25 years. A committee was appointed to draw up resolutions of commendation for the services of these two officers, and several of the trustees spoke giving their personal appreciation for the work during the past decades.

E. L. Blaine was re-elected to head the Board of Trustees as chairman. Harry L. Brown will serve as vice-chairman. Norton Clapp was selected to take over the position of secretary.

The executive committee, consisting of President Edward H. Todd, Chairman E. L. Blaine, Harry L. Brown, Dix H. Rowland, Norton Clapp, James G. Newbegin, Henry Shaw, C. K. Mahoney and Richard K. Wasson, was named. Mr. Wasson, who is an alumnus of the College, receiving his degree in 1924, is the only new member of the committee.

Old Alums Meet

On Sunday, August 11, approximately 100 alums of the old Puget Sound University met on the College campus for a reunion celebration. The group held a chapel service in the morning, had lunch together in the College Commons and concluded with a business meeting in the afternoon.

The committee that planned the celebration was composed of the following members: Mrs. Thad Long, Mrs. Birdeen Vogelsang, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. F. D. Jennings, Mrs. Harry C. Nicholson, Mrs. Eleanor Burroughs, Mrs. James Athow, Miss Harriet Caughran, Miss Eva G. Smith, Miss Ella Bringolf, Mrs. W. W. Wainright, Mrs. H. G. Scott, R. G. Topping, Rev. H. W. Michener, Rev. Robert Earl and Lorenzo Dow.

Frosh Take Oath

The annual, traditional Color Post and Matriculation day ceremonies were held October 4. President Edward H. Todd gave the matriculation address. As an innovation to the Color Post ritual an oath written by Prof. Walter S. Davis was administered to the freshmen by its author, as follows:

"Today as I enter upon my life as a student of the College of Puget Sound, I hereby declare my earnest purpose to carry forward the noble aims of its founders, to uphold its high ideals and standards of scholarship, of citizenship, and of Christian character, to ever widen the circle of its friendships and good influence, to be true to its best traditions and good name, to promote harmony and good will among my fellow students, to keep alive my interest and my loyalty while life shall last, as a member of a Quadrant in the College. This I earnestly promise and declare."

In Memoriam

The Alumni Association mourns the death of Dr. Francis A. La Violette, honorary alumnus. Dr. La Violette passed away suddenly August 22 at his home in Seattle.

For the past six years he served as executive secretary of the conference claimants commission for the Methodist Episcopal church in the Northwest. He was born in Ontario, educated at the University of Washington and Drew Theological seminary. He served overseas during the World War as a chaplain, and was wounded in the second battle of the Marne.

Dr. La Violette was one of a committee of five that banded itself together for the purpose of buying the College property at South 9th and G Streets when it was on the verge of being taken over by the property owners. The committee secured credit to buy the property and later sold it and purchased the property at South 6th and Sprague Streets in 1903. Dr. La Violette remained a loyal supporter of the College for the remainder of his lifetime.

Here and There

TEACHING PLACEMENTS

JACK SLATTER, '34, is now assistant coach at Anacortes High School, where CHET RHODES, '31, is head coach.

GERALDINE WHITWORTH, '31, is teaching in the Tahoma high school at Route 1, Renton.

MR. and MRS. DOUGLAS BABCOCK, ex '30 (ELIZABETH MARGARITA TOTTEN, '30) are located in Napavine where Mr. Babcock is teaching.

GLADYS NEFF, '34, has received a position at Burlington High School, Burlington, Washington.

RUTH MOLINE, '34, has accepted a teaching position at Moclips.

MARTHA FORSYTH, '35, has taken a teaching post at Cowiche, Washington.

Placement Bureau

The Teachers' Placement Bureau of the College again invites the alumni to make use of the service offered by the bureau. During the past year, in addition to placement of a very considerable number of 1935 graduates, some 21 graduates of earlier years were aided in securing new appointments or advancement to better positions. Much more could have been done if sufficient information regarding graduates actively employed had been on file in the Placement Office. There were several calls for teachers of experience possessing certain specified qualifications, which the bureau had to decline but which might have been satisfactorily answered if the necessary information had been available. This was confirmed in a few cases where an incidental meeting with alumni brought out the missing information.

Proper forms for sufficiently detailed information will be furnished on application. Furthermore, the Placement Bureau cordially invites, even urges, alumni who may happen to visit in Tacoma or to have business in the city, to call and renew acquaintanceship and furnish any information that may render the service more efficient.

MARRIAGES

ELSIE KORPELA, '33 and ROBERT STROBEL, '33, were married last spring. They are at home to friends at 3801 Tacoma Ave.

MRS. RUTH WILKINSON BETHAL, '27, former principal of the high school at Roy, has received the position of superintendent of the high school.

HAROLD SKRAMSTAD, '30, received his Ph. D. degree from the University of Washington and now holds a position with the United States Bureau of Standards at Washington, D. C. Skramstad is in the Department of Aeronautics.

MARCIA EDWARDS, '25, former registrar, received her Ph. D. degree from the University of Minnesota and is now employed at the university in the school of education and as women's adviser for the Freshman class.

ROBERT SUMMERS, '34, teacher in Petersburg H. S. writes that there are four of the faculty who are former C. P. S. students. They are MISS VERNE HANNAH, LESTER WINGARD, THOMAS WINSOR ex '33, and Mr. Summers. There have been several others in previous years. One of these is DOROTHY RUTH SCOTT, '29, who is now living in Petersburg, and is Mrs. Norman B. Rustad.

A.A.U.W. Honors College

Formal recognition was granted to the College of Puget Sound by the American Association of University Women last summer. This provides that women graduates of Puget Sound are eligible to active membership in place of their former status of associates. Associate members were permitted to benefit by the work but not to hold office in the organization.

Another benefit of this recognition is the granting by the association to women who have completed two years at CPS the rank of associate membership. Under the status given when Puget Sound received first recognition several years ago, two year students were barred and graduates received only associate rank. This new arrangement provides that former graduates of the institution shall have the same rights and privileges as those graduates of the future and places them upon the same basis as alumnae of University of Chicago, University of Washington and of any of the other 600 schools which are recognized by the A.A.U.W.
